

The Crossing of the Red Sea

Exodus 14

1. What are the circumstances that surround the story?
 - a. Israel has just fled from the Egyptians and Moses is leading them through the wilderness.
 - b. The Israelites have been traveling for some time now, several weeks and for almost a month by our modern calendar.
 - c. They have left Egypt in quite a state. The plagues were destructive not only to the physical dynamics of land and life but they were a direct message from God to the Egyptians about who was _____ . Each plague was God showing Himself to be _____ of all.
2. What are the details of the story?

- a.
- b. The reasoning behind this seemingly unusual route is to further proof of _____ and _____ .
 - i. V.2 God tells His people to turn back and camp at Pi-Hahiroth between Migdol. Then to make sure they were facing the mountain believed to be home of the god Zephon called Baal-Zephon.
 - ii. it would be the Egyptians who would discover who was both Lord of the mountain, but also Lord over the sea!
- c. The path they crossed was 17 Km long which is _____ long.
 - i. This place is called the straits of Tiran.
 - ii. There is an island where the believed god of the waters lived which is called _____ .
3. What does this story teach us about God and His plan of redemption?

God is the way maker!

 - a. God makes a _____ when there seems to be no _____
 - i. _____

The Crossing of the Red Sea

Exodus 14

- ii. _____ When we feel like we are meandering in the desert and backtracking it is important to remember that God has a plan.
 - b. God's plans will always work to glorify _____ .
 - i. We know that Christ is to be glorified but how is not often as clear. Scripture points out an interesting perspective.
 - ii. _____
 - 1. In our obedience to God, He is glorified through us. Likewise, however, our disobedience does not. Praise God for His Grace.
 - c. God is our _____ .
 - i. _____ .
 - 1. _____ and _____ can't live together in the same heart, for one will destroy the other.
 - 2. What you need to _____ you will also stand in the way to _____ you.
4. What is the personal application for our lives today?
- a. We are not always going to understand why God asks us to do or go through the _____ .
 - i. _____
 - 1. Notice it says heart and not mind. It implies that this isn't just a physical feeling that we use or gut to determine trust. It is as much if not more of a spiritual guidance through the Holy Spirit.
 - b. Walking in the wilderness can cause _____ but God is in control. He is the God of the waters and the mountain.
 - i. _____
 - 1. Our God will be our _____ when we are walking in the _____ .
 - a. People will _____ how God provides his protection.
 - ii. _____